CLUB HOLDS ITS ANNUAL MEETING

Reports Indicate Great Popularity of Business Men's Organization.

NEW DIRECTORS ELECTED

President Bryan Tells How It Has Worked for Common Welfare of Richmond.

At the annual meeting of the Business Men's Club yesterday President Thomas P. Bryan submitted his annual report, showing the club to have enjoyed the most prosperous and active year since its organization six years ago. President Bryan reported that the club had now become a recognized factor in the life of the community, having attained its position by quiet accomplishment. It has been its policy, he said, studiously to avoid the economic blunder of hampering or competing with other organizations, but on several occasions aided and supplemented the work of other organizations for the upbuilding of Richmond. The membership on May 1, was 1,049, divided as follows: resident, 787; nonresident, 155; commercial, seventy-seven, representing every line of business and almost every business institution in the city.

In Good Condition. The income from all sources during the year was $18,864.20. An elaborate audit of the books shows a profit for the year of $984.83, with present assets of $6,191.24 and liabilities of $5,206.41, against which there is furniture, equipment, and other assets, pending accounts amounting to $7,180.98. The club restaurant, which is made a great feature of this organization, and affords a daily meeting place for hundreds of business men, served during the year 1519 meals for $229 per day. The average cost per meal was $3.084, and for service $2.544, making the total $5.628, while the average receipts per meal were $4.835, a loss of $0.793 per meal.

In regard to the activities of the club, President Bryan reviewed some of the public addresses held in the club rooms, with the subjects treated, the addresses by the sixteen candidates for the Administrative Board, the prominent part the club is taking in the fight for enlarging the boundaries of the city, including the adoption by the entire membership of a resolution urging a liberal and progressive annexation; the weekly table talk luncheons and the use of the club rooms as a meeting place for many organizations. In fact, Mr. Bryan said that nearly every large business or philanthropic corporation started in Richmond in the past year had its organization planned in the rooms of this club.

Directors Elected. For the short term expiring May 31, 1914—Clyde H. Radcliffe, 140; W. P. Waddy, 137. Mr. Radcliffe being declared elected.

For the three-year term, five directors being elected each year, the suit shown as follows: John Bagby, 151; J. H. Binford, 159; Clarence Cadet, 90; Robert S. Christian, Jr., 156; A. M. Gover, 181; Henry Harwood, 180; A. G. Hoover, 91; Captain John Landstreet, 192; Dr. W. H. Street, 52, and Moses Thalhimer, 52. The first five were declared elected, in the following order: Captain John Landstreet, A. M. Gover, R. Henry Harwood, John H. Binford and R. S. Christian, Jr. The new board of directors will meet to-day at 2 o'clock for the election of officers of the club. Efforts are being made to induce President Bryan to accept another term, but as yet he has not consented.

BEARS RAID MARKET

But It Was the Weather Market, and Not the Bear.

There is no news for home folk in the statement that the bears started a stampede in the weather market yesterday, and sent the mercury figures below the low mark of Sunday. And there is no news in it for people away from here, for the cold snap has been general throughout the country. But old Mrs. Weather monopolized the parlor talk, and as a topic of polite conversation she was right there, hair curling and chin quivering, when the thermometer dropped to 56 under the bear raid yesterday, and the parties in the parks couldn't cuddle up because the parks were bare of human beings. Cold? Why, it got so cold that Captain Tom Cunningham, of the city tug, looked about and wondered if he'd have to let the ships pass. Dr. Evans, the weather sharp, couldn't see anything unusual in the thermometer readings, and an elderly banker remarked that his valet told him June was bound to be a cold month, because he had seen that very statement printed in the almanac. The South Richmond cat, marooned in a tree, sent out a hurry call last night for blankets that could not, while the Willie boy with the straw hat and the green bow in the back threw out his chestless chest, took a dive for the tall uncut and stayed there.

MOTOR CAR HITS GIRL IN STREET

Miss Adele Williams Injured When Knocked Down at Fifth and Broad.

HER COLLARBONE FRACTURED

Daley, Who Drove Car, Arrested. Though Witnesses Say It Was Clearly an Accident.

While crossing Broad Street at Fifth, in the midst of the crowded traffic yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Miss Adele Williams, fifteen years old, daughter of Mrs. J. W. Williams, of 602 1-2 North Twenty-third Street, became confused and dodged squarely in the way of an approaching automobile, driven by W. J. Daley, of 1724 East Broad Street, and was run down before she could jump out of the way. She was seriously, though not dangerously, injured.

Daley, who conducts a confectionery shop at Eighteenth and Broad Streets, was placed under arrest by policemen attracted to the scene, although witnesses seemed to agree that the collision was purely accidental and unavoidable on the part of the driver. He was taken to the Second Police Station and bailed for his appearance in Police Court. His nerves were very much shaken by the affair, and in his distress he offered the injured girl every assistance he was capable of performing.

Crowd Saw Accident. Happening just at the hour when Broad Street is crowded from curb to curb with motor and horse-drawn vehicles, it is thought that the girl lost her bearings when she had almost reached the car tracks and in her confusion became hopelessly at sea. The accident happened in full view of hundreds of persons on the sidewalks, and within a few minutes after she fell a circle many rows deep of excited, inquisitive spectators gathered around her prostrate form. Miss Williams fortunately escaped falling under the wheels of the automobile, being tossed to one side by the radiator. Daley brought his car to a standstill a few yards past the place where the girl lay and ran back to offer aid.

Harvie Radcliffe, a spectator, finally took the injured girl in his arms and carried her through the curious crowds into Boschen's Shoe Store, 505 East Broad Street, where a first aid ambulance was sent. Policemen arriving at the corner were stationed in the doorway of the store and found their hands full fighting back the curious crowd, and when women clamoring to be admitted. The congestion of traffic was one of the serious aspects of the affair.

When Ambulance Surgeon Williams made his preliminary examination of the girl, he found her condition not so bad as had been feared, though her collarbone was fractured. She was very much frightened and inclined to hysterics, refusing to allow any physician except her family surgeon to treat her. Mr. Williams, however, succeeded in quieting her fears, and she was taken to her home in a private automobile.

PREPARE TO VOTE IN NEW TOWNSHIP

North Richmond Will Nominate First Town Officers at Big Mass-Meeting To-Night.

Candidates for office in the new township of North Richmond will be nominated to-night at a mass meeting of citizens in the Barton Heights Assembly Hall. All residents of the new township will have an equal voice in their selection, but only qualified voters will be allowed to participate in the regular election, which will be held on June 24. Jacob Stegler qualified yesterday as registrar for the town and will have the task of preparing a list of voters.

North Richmond was made an incorporated town by an order entered on May 29, by Judge R. Carter Scott, of Henrico Circuit Court. Generally speaking, the township embraces the entire section of Brookland District, lying between Ginter Park and Barton Heights, traversed by the First Street car line, including Battery Court, Norwood, Brookland Heights, Parkland and other subdivisions. The present number of inhabitants is placed at 150, of which probably seventy-five are qualified voters.

As soon as a definite township organization is perfected, it is probable that a small issue of bonds for improvements, such as streets, sidewalks, schools and other public conveniences, will be floated. At present the town is without a voting precinct, but this will also be remedied as soon as the town is fully organized. Most of the residents of the new town vote in Barton Heights, and it is there they will cast the ballot for the first town officials.

Doctors to Read Papers. The regular meeting of the Richmond Academy of Medicine and Surgery will be held to-night. Papers will be read by Dr. James H. Hall, Dr. Edward McGuire and Dr. James Smith.

Visiting Members of T. P. A.

CHAPMAN ALL WITH PTOMAIN POISON

Revenue Agent Victim of Attack, Which Is Puzzling to His Physicians.

Colonel W. H. Chapman, United States Revenue Agent for the Second District of Virginia, is ill at his home, 107 South Third Street, with what his physicians fear may be ptomaine poisoning. Symptoms have appeared which indicate the poison, but it is thought possible that it may be simply a case of a disordered digestion. Colonel Chapman is confined to his bed, and in considerable pain, with no idea of when he will be in condition to appear at his desk on W. J. Gordon, who is attending him, refrained from pronouncing the case ptomaine poisoning, but said there was possibility of such trouble. An inflammation of one limb, coupled with other symptoms, point to poison.

Colonel Chapman was taken ill on the train Sunday, while returning from Mecklenburg County, where he had ordered the Beaver Dam Distillery, Companions diagnosed his trouble as ptomaine poisoning, and the case was at that time expected that a few days' complete rest and dieting will put him on his feet again. He was kept on the go during his investigation trip, and was irregular in his eating.
